

English Courses

Course Title	9th Grade	10th Grade	11th Grade	12th Grade
AP Language & Composition				•
AP Literature & Composition			•
Collaboration & Innovation in the 21st Century	•	•	•	•
ACC ENG 121 – English Comp I AND				•
ACC ENG 122 - English Comp II				•
Creative Writing	•	•	•	•
English I	•
English I Honors	•
English II		•
English II Honors		•
English III			•
Honors Contemporary Lit & Comp			•
English IV				•
Content Read & Write	•	•	•	•
ESL - English I	•	•	•	•
Public Speaking	•	•	•	•

"The art of art, the glory of expression and the sunshine of the light of letters, is simplicity."

- Walt Whitman

AP Language & Composition
50390S1 & 50390S2

Credit:
1

Cost of Novel &
$94 AP Exam

Grade:
12

Prerequisites: Juniors must complete AP Literature and Composition and earn an A or B or English III and earn the teacher's recommendation.

Graduation Req: Language Arts

This course follows the College Board curriculum for Advanced Placement Language and Composition. This is a rigorous year-long course that places classroom attendance and participation at a premium. A college level reading ability and a firm grasp of the academic essay in both form and function is mandatory. This accelerated year-long course prepares students for the AP English Language and Composition exam through reading and analysis of nonfiction essays and literature in addition to polishing critical thinking and writing skills. Because students who pass the AP exam may earn college credit, the degree of difficulty is high. At the same time, the course introduces students to critical reading, note-taking, time management, and work ethic vital for success in college and the work place. The position paper, analysis paper, and synthesis paper are the focus of the course. Students will learn to analyze and utilize rhetorical strategies and stylistic devices in the context of a variety of types of essays. They will be expected to complete summer reading/writing in preparation for the course. Students are expected to take the AP Exam and have the opportunity to earn college credit. Students are expected to purchase novels for the course. The co-taught team teaching model allows students to experience multiple perspectives and instruction styles, as well as a host of classroom activities that cannot be facilitated in a single instructor course. It also allows for more select differentiation of instruction giving students a richer overall experience

AP Literature & Composition
50400S1 & 50400S2

Credit:
1

Cost of Novels &
$94 AP Exam

Grade:
11

Prerequisites: Sophomores must complete English II Honors and earn an A or B or English II and earn the teacher's recommendation.

Graduation Req: Language Arts

This accelerated year-long course prepares students for the AP English Literature and Composition exam through reading and analysis of classic literature (primarily world literature). Students have the opportunity to polish critical thinking and writing skills. This course has a high degree of difficulty. Students use both a writing process approach and a timed writing approach in order to build fluency, control, and effectiveness in their writing, and they will be expected to complete summer reading in preparation for the course. Students are expected to take the AP Exam and have an opportunity to earn college credit. Students are expected to purchase novels for the course. The co-taught team teaching model allows students to experience multiple perspectives and instruction styles, as well as a host of classroom activities that cannot be facilitated in a single instructor course. It also allows for more select differentiation of instruction giving students a richer overall experience.

Collaboration & Innovation in the 21st Century
50525

Credit:
0.5

Grade:
9-12

Prerequisites: None
Graduation Req: Elective

A one semester hands on English course for all grades intended to empower students with real world communication skills for problem solving. Students will utilize collaboration and creativity to explore a problem or issue in the community and design a solution. Students may also utilize collaboration and creativity to explore inefficiencies and redundancies in non-profit organizations and design a workable solution for those. Students will learn their strengths and weaknesses in communication and collaboration and work to enhance or remedy them to create greater efficiency in the collaborative environment. Students will study the concept of innovation and creativity through the stories of great leaders to develop a mindset of innovation and creativity. The class will incorporate play, problem solving, research, reflection, collaboration, inquiry, design thinking, and communication (both written and verbal) skills.

ACC ENG 121 - Fall English Composition I.
69025

Credit:
.5

Grade:
12

Graduation Req: Language Arts

Students enrolled in this course must be concurrently enrolled in ACC.

Course Description: Emphasizes the planning, writing, and revising of compositions, including the development of critical and logical thinking skills. This course includes a minimum of five compositions that stress analytical, evaluative, and persuasive/argumentative writing.

ACC ENG 122 - Spring English Composition II
69026

Credit:
.5

Grade:
12

Prerequisite(s): Students must have an ACC "S" number and ENG 121 or ENG 131.

Graduation Req: Language Arts

Students enrolled in this course must be concurrently enrolled in ACC.

Expands and refines the objectives of English Composition I. Emphasizes critical/logical thinking and reading, problem definition, research strategies, and writing analytical, evaluative, and/or persuasive papers that incorporate research. This course is one of the Statewide Guaranteed Transfer courses. GT-CO2.

Honors Contemporary Lit & Comp
504761

Credit:
1

Grade:
11

This year-long Honors course includes a mix of contemporary and classical literature. Students will participate in analytic reading and examination of effective models for writing, while learning to write clearly and effectively for a variety of college and career environments. This course is considered a step in the pathway toward Advanced Placement and/or concurrent enrollment classes senior year.

Creative Writing
50470

Credit:
0.5

Grade:
9-12

Prerequisites: None
Graduation Req: Elective

This course focuses on the creative genres of writing: poetry, fiction and drama. Students are taught structures and models from each genre and are then assigned various writing activities within the genres. Students are also expected to engage in extensive critiquing, editing, and rewriting activities. Writers are encouraged to share their writing with classmates.

English I
50300S1 & 50300S2

Credit:
1

Grade:
9

Prerequisites: None
Graduation Req: Language Arts

This year-long course is designed to help students transition to the high school English program by refining and strengthening reading, writing, and communication skills. It gives students the opportunity to develop an understanding and appreciation of world literature. Students will study literature through the genres of novel, drama, short story, nonfiction, and poetry, as well as through common themes. The study of grammar, usage, and mechanics will be integrated with the students' writing. Home work plays an essential role in the course, along with the study of vocabulary.

English I Honors
50310S1 & 50310S2

Credit:
1

Cost of Novels

Grade:
9

Prerequisites: Students must earn 2 A's in content knowledge and work habit grades in 8th grade Language Arts each quarter or at least 2 B's in 8th grade Discovery Language Arts each quarter.
Graduation Req: Language Arts

This year-long, accelerated course includes the literature and writing experiences of English I, at an accelerated level. The course is intended for students capable of a challenging curriculum, and it provides a strong foundation for subsequent Honors and Advanced Placement English classes. In Honors English I, students will be expected to handle a greater amount of assigned reading than in English I and will compose more sophisticated essays, including the critical analysis essay and persuasive essay. Honors English I students will also study vocabulary. Homework is an essential part of the course, and students will be expected to complete summer reading in preparation for the school year. Students are expected to purchase novels for the course.

English II
50330S1 & 50330S2

Credit:
1

Grade:
10

Prerequisites: English I
Graduation Req: Language Arts

English II is a year-long course intended to help students strengthen their writing, reading, and communication skills. Students will study the six eras in American literature. They will also explore the genres of novel, short story, nonfiction, poetry, essay, speeches, and drama. In addition, students will be expected to successfully complete a major research project; multi-paragraph, thesis-driven essays; critical analysis essays, essay tests; and first person, narrative accounts. Homework plays an essential role in the course, along with the study of vocabulary.

English II Honors Credit: Cost of Novels Grade:
50340S1 & 50340S2 1 10

Prerequisites: Students must earn an A or B in English I Honors. Students not meeting this requirement may test into the course or be admitted based on current teacher's recommendation.

Graduation Req: Language Arts

This year-long, accelerated course includes much of the literature, vocabulary study, and writing experiences of English II, but at an accelerated level (reading assignments, homework, and complexity of writing will be augmented). This course is intended for students capable of a challenging curriculum and provides a strong foundation for subsequent Advanced Placement English classes. In addition, the study of grammar, usage and mechanics will be integrated with the students' writing. In addition to the increased homework load, Honors English II students will be expected to complete a summer reading component. Students are expected to purchase novels for the course.

English III Credit: Grade:
50360S1 & 50360S2 1 11

Prerequisites: English II

Graduation Req: Language Arts

This year-long course will challenge students to improve the sophistication of their writing by asking students to write for a variety of purposes and audiences. The course will stress the critical study of archetypes and analysis of these elements within a variety of fiction and nonfiction. Students will also study and analyze literary philosophies and examine the element satire.

English IV Credit: Grade:
50440S1 & 50440S2 1 12

Prerequisites: English III

Graduation Req: Language Arts

In this year-long course, seniors will prepare for career and college by writing a resume, and a college admissions essay. The reading and annotation of fictional texts will boost vocabulary and comprehension, but most of the reading and writing will be nonfiction with an emphasis on theme, author's purpose, identifying evidence from the text, and vocabulary. Students will also continue to focus on writing well-developed essays using reliable sources.

Content Credit: Grade:
Read/Write 1 9-12
50640S1 & 50640S2

Prerequisites: No prerequisite

Graduation Req: Language Arts

This is a year-long English elective course for students interested in developing their literacy (reading and writing) strategies, skills, and abilities. They will define what it means to be a strategic reader and writer. They will read and write for a variety of purposes ranging from academic to real-world. Students will be formally assessed using iReady three times a year.

ESL – English I
40600S1 & 40600S2

Credit:
1

Grade:
9-12

Prerequisites: No prerequisite
Graduation Req: Language Arts

ESL English is a year-long English class for beginning English learners, students whose first language was not or is not English. The purpose of this class is to support students in building language and academic skills that will help them be successful in their course work. This class covers the mechanics of the English language, such as sentence structure, verb tense, and parts of speech. Students will do weekly vocabulary related to their academic classes such as science, math, and social studies. There is a heavy focus on writing for a variety of purposes, paragraph structure and MLA citation. Students will have an opportunity to present to their classmates and work collaboratively on writing and presentation pieces. Students will read extensively and they will develop skills in all four language domains (speaking, listening, reading, and writing).

Public Speaking
50700

Credit:
0.5

Grade:
9-12

Prerequisites: None
Graduation Req: Elective

This course is to prepare students for the variety of speaking situations they will inevitably encounter in their academic and professional careers. Emphasis is placed on improving confidence and self-esteem while developing and practicing communication skills. By giving presentations to the class, students will learn presentation techniques, organizational patterns, use of evidence and research, and listening skills.